

Sentence Writing Checklist

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Place an "M" beside each objective mastered.

Attributes of simple sentences	Exclamatory sentences include:
Simple written sentences include:	_____ Attributes of simple sentences
_____ One thought (subject and verb)	_____ Strong feeling with exclamation point
_____ Beginning capitalization and ending punctuation	_____ Additional capitalization and punctuation if previously taught
_____ Logical order of words and phrases	Imperative sentences (commands) include:
_____ Precise language	_____ Attributes of simple sentences (usually the subject you is understood)
Four Types of Simple Sentences	_____ Exclamation point or period
Declarative sentences (statements) include:	_____ Additional capitalization and punctuation if previously taught
_____ Attributes of simple sentences	Compound Sentences
_____ Period	_____ Attributes of simple sentences
_____ Additional capitalization and punctuation if previously taught	_____ Two independent sentences (clauses)
Interrogative sentences (questions) include:	_____ Conjunction and, but, or with comma
_____ Attributes of simple sentences	Complex Sentences
_____ Reversed order of subject and verb	_____ Attributes of simple sentences
_____ Question mark	_____ One independent and one dependent clause (We will go if it does not rain.)
_____ Additional capitalization and punctuation if previously taught	_____ Conjunction if, as, after, than, when, unless, because, however with a comma if used as an introductory clause (If it rains, we will not go.)